AUTHORS

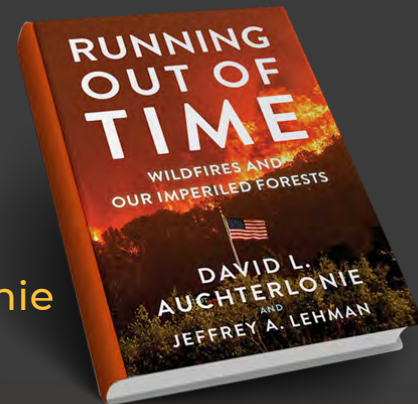

David L. Auchterlonie is an award-winning corporate turnaround executive, whose industry expertise includes aviation, technology, consumer products, and more. With over 50 years of business experience, he led turnarounds of more than 200 businesses facing complex strategic, operational, and financial challenges.

Jeffrey A. Lehman has served as a C-level consultant to multinational corporations such as McDonnell Douglas, Boeing, and Battelle Memorial Institute, as well as government and military entities for more than 30 years. His experience includes program management, operations, strategic planning, logistics, and more.

Auchterlonie and Lehman's motivation to write this book stems from their experience and thirst for solutions to the complex problems of our current wildfire management in America, and the long-standing, long-term devastating impact it has on so many individuals and society. Lehman and Auchterlonie also founded Crowbar Research Insights, LLC.
